Gustave Boël - Sofina Fellowships 2018

REGULATIONS

Art. 1. Thanks to the help of the King Baudouin Foundation acting on behalf of the Platform for Education and Talent, talented PhD students who have obtained their relevant MA or MSc degree after November 1, 2013 may apply for a Gustave Boël - Sofina Fellowship to go abroad for a research and/or training stay of either 6 months or 12 months during the academic year 2018-2019.

Art. 2. These Fellowships consist of a fixed allowance of 1,650 € per month and cover travel costs (lump sum of 1,000 € covering an economy class return ticket). The monthly allowance may be used for accommodation, daily living expenses, expenses related to the research or training undertaken in the course of the Fellowship, and local transportation.

Art. 3. Candidates may go abroad to a host institution of their choice in all countries worldwide except the United States of America. The quality of the host institution is an important criterion in the selection procedure, since the Platform for Education and Talent aims at promoting excellence through training at the best educational institutions abroad. Also, the Platform for Education and Talent envisions these fellowships not only as a way to broaden the candidates' experience and training, but also to establish a global network of talent and develop new contacts abroad. Hence they encourage candidates to look for a host institution where they have not been staying for a significant period prior to the Gustave Boël - Sofina research stay.

Art. 4. The Gustave Boël - Sofina Fellowships can be awarded to doctoral students with a clear attachment to Belgium. They must have been affiliated to a Belgian university for at least one full year prior to the submission deadline and will be affiliated to a Belgian university for at least the entire duration of the research stay. Beneficiaries of clinical PhD fellowships, as well as candidates from the Royal Military Academy, are eligible.

Art. 5. Applicants should have an outstanding academic record and have an excellent command of the language which will be used at the host institution.

Art. 6. The jury will take into account other funding granted to the applicant for the same stay abroad (e.g. travel grants); applicants are expected to indicate in the application form all other funding applied for to cover the same period and purpose.

Art. 7. Applications have to be submitted electronically to prix@frs-fnrs.be before November 1, 2017. The application file should contain:

- the application form;
- a detailed curriculum vitae (including a list of publications);
- a letter of reference by the applicant’s PhD supervisor;
- a personal motivation letter; please be certain to explain why you want to go to the chosen host institution, why you need the Gustave Boël - Sofina Fellowship as well as your affiliation to Belgium (previous, current and future affiliations);
• an invitation letter from the foreign host institution, in which the responsible contact person in the country of destination acknowledges that the successful candidate will be received at the institute chosen for his/her training or research activities for the duration of the Fellowship;

• a detailed curriculum vitae (with list of publications) of the head of the foreign research group.

Art. 8. The F.R.S.-FNRS will check the eligibility of applications submitted prior to the evaluation by the Jury. A scientific Jury appointed by the F.R.S.-FNRS / FWO will evaluate all applications according to the following evaluation criteria:

• the applicant’s profile;
• the applicant’s motivation, expressed in his motivation letter;
• the quality of the host institution;
• the potential to realise the project described in the application;
• the project will be evaluated on its merits and benefits to the candidate and his career.

The final decision will be made by the Board of Trustees of the Platform for Education and Talent, on proposition of the F.R.S.-FNRS / FWO Jury’s recommendations.

Art. 9. A representative of the Platform for Education and Talent will attend the Jury meeting as observer.

Art. 10. Within three months after returning to Belgium, the beneficiaries of the Fellowships shall submit to the F.R.S.-FNRS a detailed scientific report on their stay abroad. In addition, they are required to submit a financial report accounting for the use of the granted credit.

Art. 11. The scientific outline, presentations and evaluation reports generated in the framework of these Fellowships will be treated confidentially.

Art. 12. Any question concerning the eligibility of the applications and the awarding of the Fellowships will be settled in a final and binding manner by the Platform for Education and Talent.
